THE PROJECT

Underground Alba

The "Alba Underground" project was launched in Spring of 2011. It is administrated by "Ambiente & Cultura" and co-ordinated by the Museum "F. Eusebio" of Alba, with the patronage of the Ministry of Culture and of the Archaeological Superintendence of Piedmont and MAE.

Since the time of Alba Pompeia (that was the name of the city during the Roman times), the historic centre of the city has seen a sequence of generations of town, belonging to different civilization, one after the other, in the same place. The medieval town grew up on the ruins pertaining to the Roman period, the modern town took its place without cancelling it completely, and so on, we arrived at today's town that still retains the urban shape of Alba Pompeia.

Many things have remained in the heart of the underground city as evidence of the past two thousand years of history. A few meters below the streets and the sidewalks, there are fragments of lost cities which constitute the rich heritage of the F. Eusebio Museum and of the archaeological and architectural city path.

The ancient temple, the roman age theatre and main square, the mosaics and the domus, the bastions of the defensive walls, the warehouse barrack, the first baptismal font, the lost medieval towers.
